

Leading Remotely

COURSE OVERVIEW

This program is designed to support principals and department chairs with the challenge of engaging and leading their teams successfully at a distance.

Drawing on research and good practice from sectors where remote leadership and dispersed teams are common, it will enable you to understand what makes leaders effective in this context, how you can continue to support your staff. and give you the confidence and strategies to lead at your best.

CONTENT COVERED INCLUDES:

- Myths and truths about working remotely
- Your vision for working remotely
- Maintaining your resourcefulness
- Creating connection remotely
- Communicating with impact
- Building alignment across your dispersed team

KEY FEATURES

- Building your vision for making remote working a positive experience
- Feeling more confident and comfortable leading remotely
- Knowing how to ensure others stay present and feel engaged remotely
- Knowing how to get your message across remotely

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Principals, APs, heads of department

ONE-TO-ONE COACHING OPTION

5*1 hr sessions of virtual 1:1 coaching

AU$1,595 per person inc online learning

GROUP COACHING OPTION

4*2 hours of zoom group coaching

AU$3,670 per group of 4-6 participants

